PUBLICATION OF DRAFT RECOMMENDATIONS FOR THE COMMUNITY GOVERNANCE REVIEW OF LITTLE STANNEY, CROUGHTON, STOKE AND WERVIN PARISHES

Local Government and Public Involvement in Health Act 2007

As part of the current Community Governance Review of Little Stanney, Croughton, Stoke and Wervin Parishes, under the terms of reference published on 31 May 2012, the Community Governance Review Committee of Cheshire West and Chester Council has made the following draft recommendations:

That at this time:

- (1) the parishes of Little Stanney, Croughton, Stoak and Wervin should not be abolished and that their areas should not be altered;
- (2) the names of the parishes of Little Stanney, Croughton, Stoak and Wervin should not be altered;
- (3) the parishes of Little Stanney, Croughton, Stoak and Wervin should continue to have a parish council; and
- (4) the area of the parishes be re-visited under the terms of reference for the future community governance review of the Ellesmere Port unparished area.

Reasons for the recommendation

To enable completion of the community governance review of Little Stanney, Croughton, Stoak and Wervin parishes in accordance with the timescales set and to enable more effective governance arrangements whilst protecting and reflecting the identities and interests of each settlement within the parish and eliminating the need for more specific 'internal' boundary changes within the existing 'group'. To allow for a fuller consideration of suggested external boundary changes as part of the future review of the surrounding areas.

Next steps
